

Rosetta Stone® Enterprise

Rosetta Stone Enterprise is a cost-effective language-training solution that harnesses the power of technology to provide immersion-based, self-paced study, accelerate language learning, and provide quantifiable measurements of success. Rosetta Stone Enterprise builds language skills, helping organizations maximise their talent pool and improve communication internally and globally. Used by thousands of companies worldwide for all levels of learning, Rosetta Stone Enterprise is uniquely scalable and flexible to any business or organisation's needs. Innovative features include advanced speech recognition technology that helps learners to start speaking a language quickly with correct pronunciation, and an intuitive user interface that captivates and engages users. The program is offered in 31 languages and can be accessed online by employees anywhere at any time. The program also offers Rosetta Stone Manager, a built-in management tool that provides powerful, easy-to-use administrative and reporting functionality for easily tracking employee success. These tools deliver easy-to-read reports and graphs that track learner activity, progress and scores – providing organisations with key information needed to confirm return on language investment.
